Online/Internet Services: User Obligations and Responsibilities

Any person using District equipment or using the District network (hereto referred to as "User") are expected to follow the items below:

1. The User shall keep personal account numbers and passwords private and shall use only the account they have been assigned.
2. Users shall use the District's system safely, responsibly, and solely for assigned educational purposes.
3. Users shall not use the system to engage in commercial or other for-profit activities.
4. Users shall not use the system to encourage the use of drugs, alcohol or tobacco, nor shall they promote unethical practices or any activity prohibited by law or Board Policy or administrative regulations.
5. Users shall not access, post, submit, publish, or display harmful or inappropriate matter that is threatening, obscene, disruptive, or sexually explicit, or that could be construed as harassment or disparagement of others based on their race/ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, religion, or political beliefs. Harmful matter includes matter, taken as a whole, which to the average person, applying contemporary statewide standards, appeals to the prurient interest and is matter which depicts or describes, in a patently offensive way, sexual conduct and which lacks serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value for minors. (Penal Code 313)
6. Users shall not use the system to threaten, bully, intimidate, harass, ridicule, or otherwise cause a disruption to the educational environment for other students or staff. (See Ed Code 48900.2, 48900.4, 48900k)
7. Copyrighted material shall be posted online only in accordance with applicable copyright laws. Any materials utilized for research projects should be given proper credit as with any other printed source of information.
8. Users shall not intentionally upload, download, or create computer viruses and/or maliciously attempt to harm or destroy district equipment or materials or manipulate the data of any other user, including so-called "hacking."

9. Users shall not attempt to interfere with other users' ability to send or receive email, nor shall they attempt to read, delete, copy, modify or use another individual's identity.
10. Users shall report any security problems or misuse of the system to the teacher or principal.
11. Unless otherwise instructed by school personnel, users shall not disclose, use, or disseminate personal identification information about themselves or others when using email or other forms of direct electronic communication. Users also shall be strongly cautioned not to disclose such information by other means to individuals contacted through the Internet without the permission of their parents/guardians. Personal information includes names, addresses, telephone numbers, Social Security numbers, or other personally identifiable information.
12. Users shall not use encryption to intentionally hide electronic activity while using a District-owned device or while using the District network.

Possible Consequences for Misuse

The District reserves the right to monitor use of the district's systems for improper use without advance notice or consent. Users shall be informed that computer files and electronic communications, including email, are not private and may be accessed by the District for the purpose of ensuring proper use.

Whenever a User is found to have violated Board policy, administrative regulation, or the District's Acceptable Use Agreement, a user may have increased supervision of their district technology use and their privileges may be limited and/or canceled. Inappropriate use may also result in disciplinary action and/or legal action in accordance with law and Board policy.
